GOVERNING LAW
Finland

1. Scope

The Supplier shall provide the equipment and services set out in the rate schedule, at the sites notified by the Buyer from time to time. Delivery of any item is subject to a purchase order raised under this agreement and quoting its reference.

2. Prices

Unit rates are those stated in the rate schedule below. Charges in excess of these values require prior written variation signed by both parties. No invoice shall be settled at a unit rate above the maximum stated, whatever a purchase order may say.

3. Payment

Correctly rendered invoices shall be settled on Net 60 terms from the date of receipt, provided the invoice quotes a valid purchase order reference and the goods have been received.

4. Records

The Supplier shall retain records supporting each invoice for six years and shall make them available for audit on reasonable notice.

5. Variation

No variation of this agreement is effective unless in writing and signed by an authorised representative of each party.
